Empowering with Knowledge

Arm Yourselves to "Revive the Constitution"!

With Our Unique, Exciting Study of

"The Courts, the Constitution, and the Culture War"

- Enroll in our online multi-media course, "Reviving the Constitution": An intensive overview of America's Culture War focusing on how runaway Humanistic judges have tried to warp the Constitution into a weapon for revolutionizing all of American culture, and what we advocates of the Judeo-Christian worldview can do to revive our Constitution and culture on their original, necessary Judeo-Christian foundations.
- Customize your study plan:
  - Take the course totally online and self-paced
  - Available in high school or adult versions; may be expanded to college level
  - Possible: some internet sessions with the teacher if conditions allow
  - Study both printed materials and online narrated PowerPoint slides
- Study with Virginia Armstrong, Ph.D., Blackstone's President & Eagle Forum's National Court Watch Chairman
- Course is multi-disciplinary; earn credit for government, history, communications, logic, philosophy, etc.
- Advance participants' skills in leadership, critical thinking, oral persuasion, professional vocabulary, and citizenship
- Defend the Judeo-Christian worldview in our "Virtual Courtroom" – unique moot court program (Supreme Court-style setting); also compete in your own "Constitution Bowl" and/or "Vocabulary Bee"
- Analyze and debate critical Culture War issues, including:
  - The worldview and Culture War approach to the Constitution
  - The Constitution, the Declaration, and the Bible
  - The role of the courts in the Culture War
